Active Production and Design, Inc. celebrates 15 years of audio visual excellence!

ATLANTA, GA—July 30th Active Production and Design, Inc. celebrates a milestone in the Atlanta event industry. The Active team will commemorate 15 years of providing the events industry with state of the art AV and lighting services and high quality customer service, with an awesome celebration to thank its partners and clients. The event will take place at Atlanta Event Center at Opera from 6pm – 9pm and will have many surprises for its expected 200+ guests.

“We are very proud of this achievement and we want to thank those individuals and companies who have truly helped us reach this milestone. This is celebration is about the Active team but more importantly it’s our small way of showing appreciation to those people who gave us the opportunity to get here. We want our guests to simply have a good time....on us.”

-Matt Clouser, President-Active Production and Design, Inc.

Many of Active’s closest partner vendors have agreed to provide their services for the Active celebration. Some of those partners include:
